ABOUT LITIGIUM

The Litigium Debating Society is a student governed debating body that manages all literary and debating activities in JLU-Faculty of Law, Jagran Lakecity University, Bhopal. Litigium aims to initiate, spark, and facilitate debate within the student body and to create a proactive debating atmosphere in the JLU-Faculty of Law and be a home to world-class debaters. Litigium was established in the year 2014 with the idea to enhance the debating skill-set of students that prepares them for the challenges in a law-school.

Litigium provides a plethora of opportunities within and outside JLU-School of Law. The exponentially competitive field of law requires lawyers of today's generation to develop a presence of mind and quick wit for day-to-day professional requirements within and outside conventional litigation. Litigium tries to inculcate a certain amount of skill-set among students about to enter the dynamic world of law by regularly bringing forward competitions and discussion forums with experts of the field. With our eyes immovably set on the future, the Litigium Debating Society is set to maintain a debating culture that is unmatched and impeccable.
